

www.todaymilitary.com

todaymilitary.com is intended to inform students, parents, and educators as they discuss the military as a career option. It provides to links to each branch of the service and their websites as well as their respective Guard and Reserve units.

Military Service Branches

- The U.S. Military consists of five active-duty Services and their respective Guard and Reserve units.
- Together, they offer a broad variety of ways to serve and they provide training at no cost.
- If you are interested, contact our local recruiters during your junior or senior year. The recruiters make visits to the high school through out the year.
- Take the ASVAB during your junior or senior year (usually offered once each year in the fall at OHS).

www.goarmy.com

Army

Protects the security of the United States and its resources.

Army Reserve

Trains part-time near home until needed, deploying alongside the Army.

Army National Guard

Members deploy with the Army on a part-time basis, with a special focus on homeland security and relief programs.

www.navy.com

Navy

Defends the right to travel and trade freely on the world's oceans and protects national interests overseas.

Navy Reserve

Trains servicemembers close to home until they are needed in action.

www.airforce.com

Air Force

Protects American interests at home and abroad with a focus on air power.

Air Force Reserve

Gives servicemembers the opportunity to train and serve on a part-time basis, as needed.

Air Guard

Trains part-time to assist in domestic disasters and international conflicts.

www.marines.com

Marine Corps

The smallest branch of the Military, it is often first on the ground in combat

Marine Corps Reserve

Train domestically until needed, then deploy with the rest of the Corps.

www.gocoastguard.com

Coast Guard

Protects America's waterways and deploys with the Navy during wartime.

Coast Guard Reserve

Offers a part-time service opportunity for service members to train near home.